Dave has a technological background, and has been running sound for many years. He also enjoys a variety of music and brings to the table a unique ability to read a crowd.

Robert is the front man and uses his on-stage performance background to bring a high energy and elegance to every event. He also uses his years of music training to bring something different and personal to every wedding.

The D" and R" together make for a perfect combination of energetic fun with a touch of class.

Rest assured Dave and Robert as owners, will make every effort to provide you with the highest level of service...

On your wedding day.

As your wedding
day approaches...

Your wedding day...

You've dreamed of this moment all of your life.
You've imagined every detail.
You've pictured every moment.

The problem...

The stress, the intimate details of coordinating every aspect of an event of this magnitude can be extremely exhausting.

The solution...

D-n-R Entertainment.

We understand what this day means, and will treat it as if it were our own wedding day.

Our promise to You...

To handle each detail with the attention you would, had you the time.
To event manage each aspect of your special day with sensitivity to your vision and your dreams.

With D-n-R...

From the rehearsal, to the ceremony, all the way to the moment you are dashing through a sea of bubbles or sparklers are illuminating the pathway to the limousine.

We will strive to make every moment of your wedding dream... a reality.

And then something remarkable happens...
You will have truly enjoyed your wedding day.
